The website has a lot of information and is updated frequently.

Worried that someone you know may overdose on an opioid?

Naloxone is a life-saving drug that reverses opioid overdoses. We can provide a free Naloxone kit along with a training to learn how to use the kit. Individuals learn about signs of overdose, risk factors of overdose, what to do during an overdose, and how to administer Naloxone.

- Kits are available at no cost
- Training is required to receive a kit
- Trainings available by appointment only
